FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

According to the indications of yesterday the stock arket has shown increased activity to-day, and prices we been in the ascendant. The rise is entirely specutive, but the outers like the content of th lative, but the outstanding "short" interest is so large that the bulls are emboldened to pit their strength against the bears; and although there is very little out-side influence to support them it is quite possible that side influence to support them it is quite possible that they may succeed in materially advancing quotations during the next ten days. They have an easy money market in their favor, and the upward turn in gold is not without its effect. At the first board New York Central was % higher than at the second heard yesterday, Erie %, Rudson River 1%, Reading %, Michigan Southern %, Illinois Central 1, Cleveland and Pittsburg 1%, Rock Lahad 1%. Meeting of the Ship Owners' Association. OF AN ARBITRATION COMMITTER-QUAR-ANTINE OF VESSELS PASSING THROUGH THE The Ship Owners' Association held a meeting yesterday in the Chamber of Commerce, J. H. Frothingham presiding, and James Lawson, Jr., secretary. About twenty-six members were present. The Passioner stated that the special business of the meeting was to appoint an arbitration committee of seven A number of names were proposed by various members, and the following were the gentlemen announced

Edward Hincken, Charles Laling, Ambrose Snow, Louis Walsh, Cornellus Comstock, George McClearnan and G. A. Brett.

The CHAIRMAN stated that fifty names of candidates for nbership had been received since the last meeting. Mr. BRETT called attention to the circumstan vesseis passing through the Sound on rouse for New York, no matter what post they were from, were compelled to go to Quarantine, where the charge for the doctor's visit is $6.50, in addition to all other charges. This he characterized as one of the outrages on the ship owners and shipping interest generally. The Chanizzar said that suggestions like this should be freely made. He thought that the proper course would be to rafer the subject to a committee.

Mr. Bustr moved that the subject be referred to the Executive Committee with power.

This was withdrawn and a motion substituted that a committee of three be appointed to confer with the Executive Committee, and take action upon the subject. The motion was adopted, and Messra Brett, Hunter and Eiweil appointed on the committee by the Fresident.

A vote of thanks to the Chamber of Commerce for the use of their room was adopted, and the meeting adjourned. vessels passing through the Sound en route for New
